POLICE COMMISSIONER GETS EVIDENCE; MANY GAMBLERS ARE JAILED

Led by Police Commissioner De Coo and the directing heads of the vice squads, the police staged a series of spectacular raids late last night and early this morning resulting in scores of arrests, confiscation of a large supply of liquor and the breaking up of what the officers say were several rings of bootleggers and commercialized vice centers.

Simultaneously with the raids in Los Angeles, Capt. John H. Pelletier, executive secretary of the Moral Efficiency Commission, and Lieut. Oakley of the harbor police raided a steamer at the harbor and confiscated narcotics the retail value of which was placed at $10,000.

Police Commissioner De Coo figured in the most sensational raid, staged at the Baltimore Hotel, at Fifth and Los Angeles streets, where he personally secured evidence against a woman and assisted in her arrest. Commissioner De Coo was formerly president of the Moral Efficiency Association, is a prominent church member and one of the leading forces in the fight for moral reform in Los Angeles.

At an early hour this morning more than fifty persons were lodged in the City Jail as the result of the raids. Twenty bottles of whiskey were held as evidence and a large case of narcotics, brought from the San Pedro raid, held for the government inspectors.

Assisting Commissioner De Coo in the Baltimore Hotel raid were Lieut. Kiersey, Sergt. Massey and Behrendt, Detective Berensweig, Investigator Huff and Officers Bergman and Dillon.

The other arrests were made at 1516 1/2 North Spring street, 299 Ferguson alley, 124 South Spring street, 1600 East Twenty-seventh street and the harbor.

Those who understood to have voted for the acceptance of the 50 per cent maximum rate were Senators Penrose of Pennsylvania, Watson of Indiana, Curtis of Kansas, Sutherland of West Virginia, and La Follette of Wisconsin. Of these probably only Senator La Follette would have favored the high surtax under any other measure.

Those who voted against the 50 per cent maximum are reported to have been Senators Calder of New York, Dillingham of New Hampshire, Smoot of Utah, and McCumber of North Dakota. Senator McLean of Connecticut, who also has opposed it, was absent.

SPORTS MOTORING FILMLAND & DRAMA

NATIONAL LEAGUERS ARE ONE GAME BEHIND IN WORLD SERIES BATTLE.

HOYT TURNS IN SECOND VICTORY OVER GIANTS.

Young Right-hander is Hit Hard, but is Aided by Enemy's Slam-Bam Policy of Attack.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A bunt in a baseball game doesn't hold a candle to a home run as a spectacular feat, but a little bunt which Babe Ruth laid down on the grass at the Polo Grounds today showed how important a chance sometimes attaches to less sensational performances.

The Babe's home run in the ninth of Sunday's game was for the Yankees as a team just one more run, and nothing more. His bunt in the fourth inning of today's game, the fifth in the 1921 world series, but proved the turning point of the contest, which was won by the American Leaguers, 3 to 1, over their National League opponents.

The victory again gave the Yankees the edge in the series, which now stands: New York Americans . . . 3 2 New York Nationals . . . 2 1

POTENTIAL RIGHT. Walter Hoyt, the boy wonder from Brooklyn, pitched the Yankees to their third victory in the series, his second in the world series. He had been scored upon in the first inning, an error by McNally paving the way to the Giants' only tally, but the Yankees tied the score in the third when McNally, who was passed by Art Nehf, the Giants' crack left-hander, went to third on Schang's double and came home on Elmer Miller's sacrifice fly.

Then, to start the fourth for the Yankees, Ruth, who had struck out his first time, did the unexpected and laid down a bunt. The Giant infield was taken completely by surprise and Ruth landed safely on first. The way opened for a tally, and Ruth scored it a moment later, on "Bob" Meusel's hot double to left, which his brother Emil, on the Giant team, scored somewhat at a disadvantage. This ultimately proved the winning run for the Yankees, but another was speedily added when Meusel scored on Ward's sacrifice fly.

BIG GUNS FALTER. That ended the scoring for the day. Hoyt, who had seemed a bit shaky in the early innings, settled down behind his two-run lead and pitched a heady game which had the big guns in the Giant lineup guessing when safe blows were necessary to put runs across. Hoyt was hit more freely than in his shut-out game of last Thursday, but the ten safeties for the Nationals were necessary to put runs across. REAL ARGUMENT. It was Meusel's powerful right arm, however, which proved the most telling argument of the game outside of the box work of Hoyt. His quick throw to first of Ruth

THE BOYS BUST THE BOLUS FAR AND WIDE IN THE FIFTH GAME OF THE WORLD SERIES AND COBB GETS QUITE A KICK OUT OF IT.

BY IRVIN S. COBB. (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—After four days of world's series with the game score standing even—Steven, the habitual spectator is apt to find himself becoming practically shock-proof. Certainly it is true in the case of the present writer. Can it be that I am getting old? Or does the explanation lie in the fact that the thrill reflexes work more languidly when already one has viewed almost every imaginable sort of complication and situation? Almost every climax and anticlimax; almost every variety of upset and overthrow; almost every variation of strategy and science that the haphazardness of this chancy sport can offer?

Giants' First Baseman Doffs His Lid to the Flatbush Kid Who Can Repeat.

BY GEORGE KELLY. (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. — Once more my hat is doffed to Walter Hoyt. The Flatbush kid took us out today and showed us what real pitching is like. He did not smother us as he did the other day, but if you ask me, I think his game was by far greater. We forced him into positions where he had to fight to extricate himself, and he fought like a lion. He fought like a lion. He fought like a lion.

Before going any deeper into the interesting details of a brilliantly played game, I wish to state that Bob Meusel came through in brilliant style for Hoyt, and rather crossed us up in our reckoning. I think that he made the play which Hoyt right at the start. In the second inning, with two out, Burns bunted beautifully and was safe. On the hit-and-run play Bancroft singled, and Burns went to third. We all figured that Meusel would throw in front of Bancroft to stop him going to second, but when Dave made his turn, Meusel shot the ball to Pipp.

Bancroft had to break for second, and in a run up Burns started for home. Ward's throw to Schang stopped him and a needed run was cut right off our story. It took nothing from us in morale, but it fired the Yankees, and it saved Hoyt.

Long Bob was far from through in his mad campaign. He made an error saving play in the eighth inning that showed us that the reports of his throwing are not to be dis-

BEARS IN TERRIBLE CONDITION.

Brick Muller Breaks a Leg, Englebreten a Shoulder and Eels an Ankle.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

BERKELEY (Cal.) Oct. 10.—The University of California football team won Saturday from the University of Nevada, but when stock was taken today of the California players' condition, it showed a team worse crippled, probably than at any time in the university's history.

H. T. Muller, all-American end, sustained a broken leg and probably will be out of the game for the remainder of the season. Walter Eels, halfback, was injured by a broken ankle. Carl Englebreten, who substituted for Muller, had his shoulder crippled. Serious eye trouble has developed in Charles Erb, quarter, and he may not be able to participate in football soon.

Coach Andy Smith said today J. B. Morrison, fullback, and I. F. Toomey, halfback, were in "poor condition" and added he had never seen such a "string of hard luck" in all his experience.

Mission Team Plays Angels Here Today.

The big Winter League baseball struggle will be resumed again this afternoon at Washington Park when Harry Holman's Mission team clashes with the Angels in the first of a seven-game series.

Hellman, the greatest swatter in the American League last year, brings a formidable bunch of ball tossers with him. The line-up includes Paddy Sigin, Kamm, Caveney, Hellman, Hack Miller, Compton, O'Doul and Agnew and when that bunch gets its eye on the ball something is going to founder. At present it looks very much as if the Mission team is the class of the league and should have a cake walk unless some of the weak spots are plugged in the other nines.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PARIS, Oct. 10.—The Arc de Triomphe stake, the second of the French turf, was won yesterday by Mme. Edmond Blanc's 5-year-old colt, Ksar. The stake this year had an added value of 300,000 francs.

Except for the Grand Prix de Paris, Ksar has won every start this season.

GROCERS ARE AGAINST.

The Southern California Retail Grocers' Association yesterday went on record as opposing a censorship, as proposed in Los Angeles. It adopted a resolution declaring that active censorship in Los Angeles would obstruct the activities of motion-picture producers to such an extent that the industry is sure to be ruined.

MEETING.

The meeting was continued twice upon adjournment in order that all citizens inquiring which his remarks had brought forth might be replied to. No action on the question of censorship was taken at the meeting.

THE PIMA TEXTILE INDUSTRIES.

The Pima Textile Industries, a new organization in Phoenix, with Shane Morgan at its head, plans to erect a large textile mill, probably in Los Angeles, for the manufacture of high-grade cotton goods. TRIALS APART TO BE SOUGHT.
Mrs. Obenchain Doesn't Care, Though, She Declares.
Woman Held in Kennedy Murder Case Retains Poise.
Not Eager to Get Out of Jail, Suspect's Assertion.

BY EDWARD J. DOHERTY.
Attorneys for Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain and Arthur C. Burch, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, the wealthy china-painting young broker, will argue for separate trials today in the court of Judge Reeve.
But Mrs. Obenchain doesn't care whether she is tried with Burch or made to stand the ordeal alone.
"What difference does it make?" she asked yesterday afternoon. "All I can do in either case is to speak my little piece, to tell the truth."
Mrs. Obenchain was seated with her former husband, Attorney Ralph Obenchain, in one of the visitor's rooms in the County Jail. Burch, the son of the Rev. W. A. Burch of Evanston, Ill., sat in the next room talking and laughing with a young woman reporter.
Mrs. Obenchain was dressed in black, with a wide lace collar and a string of pearl beads. A diamond ring with a platinum setting glinted on her engagement-ring finger. Her right hand played with a toy silver pencil all the time she talked. She held in her lap a number of papers on which she had written.
SMILES OFTEN.
She appeared to have regained her health. She smiled much and laughed much, and her big eyes sparkled often.
"I am quite independent in some things," she said. "I did not ask for a separate trial. I didn't care about it. But I know my attorneys. Mr. Warren Williams and Mr. Obenchain, are doing what they think best for me."
"I am not a bit worried. I just can't seem to realize that I am actually going to trial in a few weeks, that's all."
"I am not anxious to get out of jail, either, strange as it may seem. There are some very interesting girls here—we have one who could print a newspaper with what she knows. She goes to the visitors' cage every Sunday and comes back just filled with news."
"Then there has been a constant succession of shocks. There was the first great shock, and I might have succumbed."
"It was plain that she was speaking of the night when Belton Kennedy fell by her side after the assassin had emptied the shotgun, and she heard the whisper—"good night, Madalynne."
STILL LOVES HER.
Her face changed. Her former husband, who loves her despite the fact that she divorced him for Kennedy, looked at her quickly and as quickly turned his head away.
"I might have succumbed," the woman went on, "but for the shock of being accused of—"
She did not finish the sentence. The shadows which wrapped her hid what emotion might have shown in her face. The last rays of the sun, struggling in through the iron bars and the screen on the window over her head, touched her hair lightly. She moved deeper into the shadows.
"I haven't worried about the trial. It's that all I loved has been taken from my life, that has made me so nervous. The accusation is not only malicious, but it is ridiculous. Yes, I have had many people say to my face they believe me guilty."
"We all feel a satisfaction in the successful accomplishment of something we plan, whether that something be good or bad. If I had planned this thing, I would have felt that satisfaction. I would not have been so utterly crushed."
"In the first place, I had wanted him out of the way. I would have done it myself."
She said that quite calmly, as a matter of course.
"And in the second place, if I had wanted a friend to do it for me I would not have permitted him to do it in such a horrible way and before my very eyes."
"ALL RIDICULOUS."
"Yes, it is all ridiculous. But I am learning life. One builds up a little set of theories and beliefs and opinions, and then something big comes crashing into life, and away goes every belief and theory and opinion. I never could realize before that an innocent woman could be put in jail for murder. I know it now. But the joke has gone nearly far enough."
"I never believed in divorce, either. My parents were divorced when I was a little girl, and I hated the thought of divorce intensely. I swore a thousand times—10,000 times—that never would I get a divorce. But I did it just the same."
And again Ralph Obenchain looked at her, and turned away his head.
Deputy Dist. Atty. Keyes will appear in Judge Reeve's court today to oppose the motion of the defense for separate trials. Attorney Paul W. Schenck, or Attorney Richard K. Trellis, associated with him, will appear for Burch. Mrs. Obenchain has no permanent attorneys, but if POISON IN DEATH CASE IS HUNTED?

Girls to be Held Pending Autopsy on Body of Stein, Film Director.
Late yesterday afternoon the police announced that Mildred Bellwin and Jean Munroe, film actresses arrested in connection with the mysterious death of Albert F. Stein, motion-picture director, will be held pending the outcome of a chemical and physiological analysis of the dead man's viscera. If the coroner's autopsy and inquest show the cause of death to have been natural they will be released.
The police have discarded the theory that Stein died from bad bottles whisky, because all the members of the gay party Saturday night declare they drank from the same bottles.
C. M. Stein, brother of the film man who died suddenly in his room at the Golden Apartments after the party, told Detectives Stehr and Smith, in charge of the investigation, that his brother had been subjected from boyhood to the choking spells described as having preceded his death.
From what can be learned by the investigating officers, Stein and a number of other men with the two women under arrest and another woman drank a quantity of liquor in Stein's apartments early Sunday morning. After the visitors had left, Stein, who had retired, had a choking spell, and died before Miss Bellwin and Miss Munroe, who also occupied the apartment, were able to call a physician.

PUZZLE ANSWER
WORK ADVANCES.
At Least One-fourth of All Replies Are Examined; Decisions Near.
Substantial progress is being made in checking answers in the "Times" Observation Puzzle, notwithstanding the vast size of the task. It was estimated yesterday that one-quarter of the B-lists had been checked over. Each individual answer is examined with painstaking care. By a process of elimination the nearest correct lists, from which the winners will finally be selected, are set aside.
The large number of excellent lists makes the judging slower than it otherwise would be, but the work is proceeding with utmost speed, consistent with care. Announcement of the sixty prize winners will be made at the earliest possible date.

which have 8000 and 7000 students, respectively.
Dean Healy of the MacLay School of Theology was then made dean emeritus, his resignation being accepted, and Dr. Fisher, recently transferred to this conference, was made dean. This places Dr. Boward and Dr. Healy in honorary positions, which both have accepted with the distinct understanding that they shall remain active in college life, the president in an advisory capacity and Dr. Healy as an instructor.
Bishop Leonard declared that the work of Dr. Boward, and especially the building of the George Finley Boward administration building, will stand as a memorial to the work accomplished by the former president. He stated emphatically that the resignation of Dr. Boward had been accepted with his full consent and only because of the arduous duties in connection with the new university.
In his address Dr. Boward said that the new president is just the age that he (Dr. Boward) was when he first became president of U.C.C., that is, 46 years of age. He declared the university is fortunate in getting such a prominent educator, who has been president of the University of Arizona for eight years.
BUYS EASTERN STORE.
C. H. Baker, Pioneer Local Shoe Man, to Extend Business to Detroit.
C. H. Baker, pioneer shoe merchant of Los Angeles, announced yesterday that he has purchased what is said to be the second largest shoe store in Detroit and is planning to extend his business into the eastern field.
Twenty-three years ago Mr. Baker opened his first shoe house in Los Angeles and is now operating a chain of eleven stores in this city, San Francisco and Portland, and is doing a business which he estimates at $2,000,000 annually.
"It may be rather unusual for the Coast retail merchant to cut into the eastern field, but that is what I propose to do," said Mr. Baker yesterday. "I anticipate that this acquisition in Detroit is but the beginning of a chain of shoe stores throughout the East, and I really feel that I need an outlet back there."

MISREPRESENTED, SAY TEACHERS IN PROTEST.
The Citizens' Better Schools Committee and the Teachers' Joint Committee have sent a communication to the Board of Education complaining of misrepresentation by some of those who have opposed the teachers' council project. The Chamber of Commerce's protest is taken as a case in point. It is declared that the original communication to the Board of Education did not recommend anything more than advisory functions of the teachers.

Poslam
soon clears a bad complexion
Over night you can often see the benefit of Poslam and Poslam Soap to purify, clarify complexion. Their gentle, healing medication seems to be the very thing needed to stop those annoying blotches. And with the skin once clear again, the regular use of Poslam Soap is really enough to keep it charmingly healthy. Poslam Soap is especially for the body face. It should be used.

INQUIRY DATA SENT TO WEBB.

Documents in Woolwine Case to Attorney-General.

May Bring Investigation of District Attorney.

Testimony Transcript Goes to State Capital.

Whether the Attorney-General will appoint a deputy to take over a suggested investigation of the District Attorney's office here will depend upon his decision after reading a large package sent by express to him yesterday by Presiding Judge Shenk. Atty.-Gen. Webb has declined to name a deputy for that purpose upon the mere recommendation of the county grand jury. Yesterday Judge Reeve forwarded all of the testimony taken by the Public Officers Committee to the grand jury and the report of the committee on the matter.

Judge Shenk's letter follows: October 10, 1921. Hon. U. S. Webb, Attorney-General, State of California, San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir: Your favor of the 8th inst. in reply to mine of the 1st inst. with reference to the request of the grand jury of this county that special counsel be furnished them in the investigation and prosecution of matters pending before them and involving the District Attorney, was received in due course of mail. After quoting my letter in full you refer to the law governing any possible action on your part in the premises and conclude as follows:

"Before the Attorney-General may properly take the action prescribed in either of the sections referred to it must appear to him that the facts are such as to warrant such action. The letter of the grand jury does not show the pendency of a criminal prosecution of any character in which the District Attorney is disqualified, nor does it show a state of facts which requires or would justify the Attorney-General of this State in assuming the functions or any of the functions of the District Attorney of Los Angeles county."

"Upon being presented with a statement of the particular matters being investigated by the grand jury, with a showing of the District Attorney's connection therewith, this office will be in a position to determine whether any action upon its part would be proper."

CHAMBER WILL CELEBRATE.

Older workers in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will have a special luncheon at the anniversary luncheon to be held tomorrow in celebration of the thirty-third anniversary of the organization. Chamber members will recall old times, familiar to pioneers and of special interest to younger persons identified with the chamber.

John Humphries, who has been secretary of the chamber, will be one of the speakers, as will J. B. Wachtell, first secretary of the organization, who first served in 1888. Frank Wiggins, who has served the chamber for twenty-six years, it has been learned, was preceded by two or three other secretaries. The newcomers' point of view in Los Angeles will be presented by Byron C. Foy. The history and development of the organization will be outlined by John Matthews, formerly vice-president of the chamber. J. L. Van Norman and Daniel C. Jones also will speak.

S. J. Mathes, manager of the special train, "California on Wheels," will tell how this advertising idea occurred to him. The R.O.T.C. Band, composed of high school students, will furnish music.

Reservations may still be made for tomorrow's luncheon to be given at the Alexandria.

Immediately upon receiving your letter I communicated the substance of the same, and particularly the portion above quoted, to the Hon. Sidney N. Reeve, the judge of this court having grand jury matters in charge, and to whom the request of the grand jury had been made. I have this day received from the grand jury through Judge Reeve and for transmission to you the following documents:

(1) Transcript of testimony taken before the public officers committee of the grand jury; Vol. I, pp. 1 to 286, inclusive; and Vol. II, pp. 287 to 511, inclusive. This is the original or ribbon copy of the transcript.

(2) The report of the committee on public officers, pages 1 to 15, inclusive, which was submitted to the grand jury on or about the 29th day of September, 1921, together with the transcript of testimony referred to in the preceding paragraph.

I observe that this report of the public officers committee is the original report. I assume that if the original be required here later on a copy could be substituted.

This report was received by the grand jury and the recommendation therein contained and embodied in the resolution of the grand jury set forth in full in my former letter was adopted.

(3) Document indorsed "Final alphabetical grouping of names—Auditor's testimony—S. S. Fund Disbursement, 1920-21," etc., pp. 1 to 54, inclusive, and

(4) Copy of correspondence in the H. D. C. Richards matter, pp. 1 to 25, inclusive.

In view of your statement to the effect that the request of the grand jury is not of itself sufficient to warrant action on your part, but that upon being presented with a statement of the particular matters being investigated by the grand jury, with a showing of the District Attorney's connection therewith, this office will be in a position to determine whether any action upon its part would be proper."

AMERICA DISCOVERY TO BE CELEBRATED.

Christopher Columbus discovered America 425 years ago tomorrow. The anniversary will be celebrated in Los Angeles by several societies, of which the Knights of Columbus will lead.

Columbus Day is a legal holiday in California, and city, county and Federal offices and banks will be closed. Special exercises will be conducted in the schools.

The program arranged by the Knights of Columbus will begin with a solemn mass at 10 a. m. at the Church of Our Lady of the Angeles at the Plaza. The Knights will attend in a body led by Benno M. Brink, their Grand Knight. Rev. Andrew J. Rea, rector of the church, will celebrate mass and Rev. Thomas Gorman of St. Vibiana's Cathedral will preach the sermon. Representatives of the Latin-American nations will have the places of honor.

The Knights from all parts of Southern California will gather in the afternoon at the Riverside County Fair where the program of the day will be conducted by the Riverside Council, Knights of Columbus. At 1:15 p. m. the Los Angeles Council will have its formal celebration at its clubhouse, 612 South Flower street.

Postmaster F. P. O'Brien will preside at the address to be made by John T. Curran, Past Department Commander of the Spanish-American War Veterans, John W. Carrigan, formerly inheritance tax attorney for the State of California, and Thomas P. White, Master of the Knights of Columbus, Fourth Degree, for the Southern California district.

Ralph J. Wheeler, lecturer of the Knights of Columbus, will present an elaborate program of entertainment. Among those who will participate are Miss Marie Murphy Sheehan, dramatic soprano, formerly with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra; Walter Willis, song and dance artist; Bill Frank, a minstrel star; Vance Booth, in a singing and dancing sketch; Miss Mildred Shannon, whistling soloist; the boy's choir from the Church of Our Lady of Loreto, composed of twenty-five boys in full vestments, and Lewis A. Kerwin and Mrs. Walter Weesie in piano and violin selections. The celebration will be free to the public.

SEES COMPLICATION AS MEN FROM EAST COME HERE TO SEEK FOR WORK.

The emergency unemployment committee appointed by Mayor Cryer in response to President Harding's request to governors of States and mayors of cities, was organized yesterday afternoon at the City Hall, with Rev. E. F. Ryland as chairman and Victor Kendrick as secretary.

The following executive committee was appointed to make a survey of the unemployment situation in Los Angeles: W. T. Bishop, Seth R. Brown, Boyle Workman, Mrs. Benjamin Goldman, C. A. Fultz, Roy Malcolm, D. Woodhead and Miss Eunice McMullin.

Mayor Cryer explained that the purpose of calling the committee together was to co-operate with the National Unemployment Conference, President C. J. Golden of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce told of unemployment conditions at Los Angeles Harbor, and John S. Horn of the Central Labor Council criticized the placid attitude of the city and news articles in eastern newspapers inviting workers to come to this city. A resolution was adopted stating that the local employment situation will become complicated as workers from the East come here in search of employment.

Thirty delegates, representing sixteen organizations, as well as a number selected by the Mayor as representing the city at large, participated in the conference.

Another suit was filed in the justice court yesterday against the campaign committee for former Mayor M. P. Snyder. In this suit the Los Angeles Printing Company seeks $250.00 for services and material furnished in the late mayoralty contest. The action was filed by the Atlas Law and Adjustment Company, represented by David J. Ellis.

Attorney Ellis states that some of the defendants named offered to settle the case, but the action is not being. The defendants are named individually and as members of and constituting the "M. P. Snyder Committee."
